Applying more than 3 working days before getting married

If you are applying more than 3 working days before you intend to get married you can give notice online at <https://marriages.services.govt.nz>. The licence can be emailed to you or your celebrant. If you having a registry ceremony, it will be sent to your celebrant.

Applying less than 3 working days before you get married

If you are applying less than 3 working days before you get married, phone +64 9 339 0852 or Call free 0800 22 52 52 (NZ only).

Applying using this form

If you are giving notice using this form, only certain people can take the statutory declaration:

- A Registrar of Marriages in New Zealand
- Outside New Zealand, only those authorised persons listed on the next page.

Once the form is fully completed, post the form with fee to BDM Licence Application, Department of Internal Affairs, PO Box 10526, Wellington 6140, New Zealand

Instructions for authorised person if declaration is signed outside New Zealand

A couple can only get married in New Zealand if, for each person:

- the marriage is not prohibited by Section 15 of the Marriage Act - Refer to page 7, and
- if aged 16 or 17 years old, consent has been obtained from a Family Court Judge, and
- there is no lawful impediment to the intended marriage. A lawful impediment includes:
 - either party is already married or in a civil union; or
 - one of the parties to the marriage is under the age of 16 years; or
 - by reason of duress, mistake, or insanity, or for any other reason, there is an absence of consent by either party to marriage with the other party.

Witnessing the statutory declaration:

1. Check that you are authorised to take a statutory declaration - refer to page 2,
2. Confirm that the place of marriage is in New Zealand,
3. Check that the date of intended marriage is less than 3 months from the form that is declared,
4. Check the document for any alterations, erasures, blanks or gaps to ensure the form is fully completed,
5. All changes to the statutory declaration must be: ruled out with a single line; the new information written clearly above the line; and the new information initialed by the person witnessing that declaration,
6. Make sure the declarant understands what they are signing and that it is a crime to make a false declaration,
7. Ask the person "Do you sincerely and solemnly declare that you are the person referred to in this declaration and that the content is true and correct?" (or words to that effect),
8. Ask the declarant to sign and print their full name,
9. You as the authorised person witnessing the declaration must sign, print your full name and enter your qualification to witness the statutory declaration,
10. Give the form to the declarant. The declarant will post the form to BDM in New Zealand.

You must sign the statutory declaration before one of these people

The qualification of the person authorised to take a statutory declaration must be one of the following and depends on whether you are making the declaration in New Zealand, or outside New Zealand and in a Commonwealth country. What are the legal requirements for all marriage ceremonies?

The legal requirements are that:

- The marriage must be performed by a Marriage Celebrant at the place(s) specified on the marriage licence; and
- The marriage must be performed in the presence of at least two witnesses; and
- During the ceremony, and before at least two witnesses, each party must say the words to each other "I AB take you CD, to be my legal wife/husband" or words to similar effect. The couple should say the words to each other rather than answering a question the marriage celebrant asks – although the marriage is still valid if the couple were asked a question; and
- Both parties and witnesses must sign the registration forms (Copy of Particulars of Marriage).

Both parties must sign the registration forms using their pre-married signatures according to their names on the Marriage Licence. For example, if one party intends to assume the other party's surname on marriage, they must sign the registration forms using their usual signature.

Children may act as witnesses if they understand the importance of the part they take in the recording of the marriage and can demonstrate that understanding in court if later required to do so.

What must happen at a registry marriage ceremony?

The Marriage Celebrant must officiate at the marriage ceremony. This includes:

- The formal identification of the parties named on the marriage licence (the celebrant must be satisfied that the persons about to be joined are in fact those named on the marriage licence); and
- The exchange of the marriage vows; and
- After both copies of the registration papers (Copy of Particulars of Marriage) have been signed and witnessed, the Marriage Celebrant must return the Registrars copy to the issuing Registry Office within 10 calendar days - the couple keep the other copy; and
- The Marriage Celebrant must take all reasonable steps to ensure the marriage is registered with Births, Deaths and Marriages.

Persons other than the Marriage Celebrant may be involved in the ceremony by, for instance, reading a poem.

There should be no doubt in the eyes of the couple, witnesses and attendees that the marriage ceremony was performed by a Marriage Celebrant.

Registry Ceremonies

Please be aware if you are considering having a registry ceremony that they are standardised to meet the legislative requirements of getting married, which includes standard marriage vows. There are limitations on the time the ceremony takes (usually 30 minutes), the space for guests and other persons may not generally be involved in the ceremony.

You may be required to produce evidence of dissolution of any previous marriages and civil unions.

Bride / Bridegroom / Partner descriptions: Each party must choose one description of either bride, bridegroom or partner according to each party's wishes.

Parents

Legal parents: Parties must include the details of their legal parents. If including details about same-sex parents, those must be the details of the party's adoptive parents, or the person's mother and her female spouse or partner where the circumstance in paragraph (b) of the following section applies.

Human assisted reproduction procedure

If a child was born as a result of an assisted human reproduction procedure (such as artificial insemination):

A) If the mother married, or entered into a civil union or de facto relationship with, a man who consented to the mother undergoing the procedure, that man's details should be entered as the Father.

B) If the mother married, or entered into a civil union or de facto relationship with a woman who consented to the mother undergoing the procedure, the mother's partners details can be entered as either Mother or Other parent, as per her preference.

Restrictions on marriageSection 15: Marriage of persons within prohibited degrees of relationship void

1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a marriage which is forbidden by the provisions of Schedule 2 shall be void.

2) Any persons who are not within the degrees of consanguinity but are within the degrees of affinity prohibited by the said Schedule 2 may apply to the High Court for its consent to their marriage, and the court, if it is satisfied that neither party to the intended marriage has by his or her conduct caused or contributed to the cause of the termination of any previous marriage of the other party, may make an order dispensing with the prohibition contained in Schedule 2 so far as it relates to the parties to the application and, if such an order is made, that prohibition shall cease to apply to the parties.

3) The Registrar of the court where any order under this section is made shall send a copy in duplicate of the order to the Registrar-General.

4) No marriage not forbidden by the provisions of Schedule 2 shall be void only on the ground of consanguinity or affinity.

Schedule 2: Prohibited degrees of marriage

1) A person may not marry the person's-

(a) grandparent:	(h) grandparent's spouse or civil union partner:
(b) parent:	(i) parent's spouse or civil union partner:
(c) child:	(j) spouse's or civil union partner's parent:
(d) grandchild:	(k) spouse's or civil union partner's grandparent:
(e) sibling:	(l) spouse's or civil union partner's child:
(f) parent's sibling:	(m) child's spouse or civil union partner:
(g) sibling's child:	(n) grandchild's spouse or civil union partner:
	(o) spouse's or civil union partner's grandchild.

2) The prohibited degrees of marriage apply whether the relationships described are by the whole blood or by the half blood.

3) In this schedule, spouse and civil union partner includes a former spouse or former civil union partner, whether alive or deceased, and whether the marriage or civil union was terminated by death, dissolution, or otherwise.
