He tono ki te rēhita i tētahi Panoni Ingoa Application to register a Name Change

Mō tētahi tangata 18 tau, neke atu rānei, kei raro rānei i te 18 tau, i mārena, hono ā-ture, moe māori rānei.
For a person: aged 18 or older; or under 18 and are, or have been, married, in a civil union or de facto relationship.

Who can register a name change?

To register a name change in New Zealand on or after 25 January 2009:

- Your birth must be registered in New Zealand; or
- If your birth is registered outside New Zealand, you must be a New Zealand citizen or entitled, under the Immigration Act 2009, to be in New Zealand indefinitely (e.g. as a permanent resident).

How long will it take?

Applications will be processed in 15 working days, from receiving a correct and complete application (plus postage time). If you have requested a certificate showing your new name, it will be issued as soon as the name change is processed.

Guidelines for the new name

Your new name must consist of one surname and one or more other names, unless your religious or philosophical beliefs, or cultural traditions require you to bear only one name - in which case attach a letter of explanation.

What is not acceptable?

The new name (or combination of names) may not be accepted for registration if:

- it might cause offence to a reasonable person; or
- it is unreasonably long (that is, it should be less than 100 characters long, including spaces); or
- without adequate justification, it is, includes, or resembles, an official title or rank (in which case attach a letter of explanation); or
- it is not a name (for example, it must not include numbers or symbols).

Certificate showing the new name

If you are unsure whether to order a certificate, you should check with any organisations that you intend to advise of your name change about their requirements.

Birth registered in New Zealand

If your birth is registered in NZ, any new birth certificate that is issued will show the new name as well as all previous names. A new birth certificate can be made available after registration, on payment of an additional fee.

Birth registered outside New Zealand

If your birth is registered outside NZ, any new name change certificate that is issued will show the new name as well as all previous names registered in NZ on or after 25 January 2009. A new name change certificate can be made available after registration, on payment of an additional fee.

You must make true statements

You must make true statements when completing this application. If you make, or cause to be made, any false statement or declaration you will be liable, on conviction, to a fine or up to 5 years imprisonment, or both.
