Notice of Intended Marriage

Change of relationship from civil union

Sign this application in person before a Registrar of Marriages and post it with fee to BDM Licence Application, Department of Internal Affairs, PO Box 10526, Wellington 6143.

What you need to know

- You need to arrange your licence more than 3 working days before you get married. It expires after 3 months.
- Only one of you needs to complete the application, but you need information about both of you.
- It costs $150 for a marriage licence or $240 for a registry marriage.
- One of the parties must sign the application personally before a Registrar of Marriages and make the required statutory declaration.
- You may be required to provide evidence of the dissolution of the most recent marriage or civil union of each of the parties, if any.
- You must complete all applicable fields.

When you need to use a paper form

- Entering a civil union, or
- Changing your civil union to a marriage, or vice versa, or
- Aged 16 or 17 years old, or
- Giving notice in NZ to get married in the United Kingdom.

What are the legal requirements for all marriage ceremonies?

The legal requirements are that:

- The marriage must be performed by a Marriage Celebrant at the place(s) specified on the marriage licence; and
- The marriage must be performed in the presence of at least two witnesses; and
- During the ceremony, and before at least two witnesses, each party must say the words to each other "I AB take you CD, to be my legal wife/husband" or words to similar effect. The couple should say the words to each other rather than answering a question the marriage celebrant asks – although the marriage is still valid if the couple were asked a question; and
- Both parties and witnesses must sign the registration forms (Copy of Particulars of Marriage).

Both parties must sign the registration forms using their pre-married signatures according to their names on the Marriage Licence. For example, if one party intends to assume the other party's surname on marriage, they must sign the registration forms using their usual signature.

Children may act as witnesses if they understand the importance of the part they take in the recording of the marriage and can demonstrate that understanding in court if later required to do so.

What must happen at a registry marriage ceremony?

The Marriage Celebrant must officiate at the marriage ceremony. This includes:

- The formal identification of the parties named on the marriage licence (the celebrant must be satisfied that the persons about to be joined are in fact those named on the marriage licence); and
- The exchange of the marriage vows; and
- After both copies of the registration papers (Copy of Particulars of Marriage) have been signed and witnessed, the Marriage Celebrant must return the Registrars copy to the issuing Registry Office within 10 calendar days - the couple keep the other copy; and
- The Marriage Celebrant must take all reasonable steps to ensure the marriage is registered with Births, Deaths and Marriages.

Persons other than the Marriage Celebrant may be involved in the ceremony by, for instance, reading a poem.

There should be no doubt in the eyes of the couple, witnesses and attendees that the marriage ceremony was performed by a Marriage Celebrant.

Registry Ceremonies

Please be aware if you are considering having a registry ceremony that they are standardised to meet the legislative requirements of getting married, which includes standard marriage vows. There are limitations on the time the ceremony takes (usually 30 minutes), the space for guests and other persons may not generally be involved in the ceremony.

Refunds: Refund of marriage licence fees will only be considered in exceptional circumstances. Requests for refunds along with supporting evidence should be sent to: Registrar-General, Births, Deaths and Marriages, PO Box 10526, Wellington 6143.

Bride / Bridegroom / Partner descriptions: Each party must choose one description of either bride, bridegroom or partner according to each party's wishes.

Parents

Legal parents: Parties must include the details of their legal parents. If including details about same-sex parents, those must be the details of the party's adoptive parents, or the person's mother and her female spouse or partner where the circumstance in paragraph (b) of the following section (Other parent) applies.

Other parent: If a child was born as a result of an assisted human reproduction procedure (such as artificial insemination):

A) If the mother married, or entered into a civil union or de facto relationship with, a man who consented to the mother undergoing the procedure, that man's details should be entered as the Father.

B) If the mother married, or entered into a civil union or de facto relationship with a woman who consented to the mother undergoing the procedure, the mother's partners details can be entered as either Mother or Other parent, as per her preference.

Restrictions on marriage

Section 15: Marriage of persons within prohibited degrees of relationship void

1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a marriage which is forbidden by the provisions of Schedule 2 shall be void.

2) Any persons who are not within the degrees of consanguinity but are within the degrees of affinity prohibited by the said Schedule 2 may apply to the High Court for its consent to their marriage, and the court, if it is satisfied that neither party to the intended marriage has by his or her conduct caused or contributed to the cause of the termination of any previous marriage of the other party, may make an order dispensing with the prohibition contained in Schedule 2 so far as it relates to the parties to the application and, if such an order is made, that prohibition shall cease to apply to the parties.

3) The Registrar of the court where any order under this section is made shall send a copy in duplicate of the order to the Registrar-General.

4) No marriage not forbidden by the provisions of Schedule 2 shall be void only on the ground of consanguinity or affinity.

Schedule 2: Prohibited degrees of marriage

1) A person may not marry the person's-

(a) grandparent:	(h) grandparent's spouse or civil union partner:
(b) parent:	(i) parent's spouse or civil union partner:
(c) child:	(j) spouse's or civil union partner's parent:
(d) grandchild:	(k) spouse's or civil union partner's grandparent:
(e) sibling:	(l) spouse's or civil union partner's child:
(f) parent's sibling:	(m) child's spouse or civil union partner:
(g) sibling's child:	(n) grandchild's spouse or civil union partner:
	(o) spouse's or civil union partner's grandchild.

2) The prohibited degrees of marriage apply whether the relationships described are by the whole blood or by the half blood.

3) In this schedule, spouse and civil union partner includes a former spouse or former civil union partner, whether alive or deceased, and whether the marriage or civil union was terminated by death, dissolution, or otherwise.
