The result from the quiz is only a general indicator to give you some idea of your ability to be eligible for a grant of New Zealand citizenship under the Citizenship (Western Samoa) Act 1982. The quiz questions do not form part of the formal assessment process. A formal assessment of your ability to meet each relevant requirement will be carried out by the Department of Internal Affairs, should you choose to apply for citizenship. The result from the quick quiz should not be read as legal advice. For more detailed information, please read the rest of the guide notes. How to fill in the application form

If you are a Western Samoan citizen, please fill in this form and use the guide notes to help you.

How should I answer these questions?

Tell the truth
The Minister of Internal Affairs will consider the information you give in the application form. It is very important that you answer all questions truthfully. If you do not, you may be denied / lose your New Zealand citizenship, or you may face criminal charges, or both.

Answer all questions
You must answer every question and provide as much information as you can. If you need more space to answer a question, please use another piece of paper. If you don’t answer a question, your application may take longer to process because we will need to contact you and we may have to send the form back to you so that you can complete it.

What if I don’t know the answer?
If you do not know the answer to a question, use these guide notes to help you. If you can’t find the answer in the guide notes, please call us on 0800 22 51 51 and we will try to help you find the information you need.

What if I need to tell you something that you have not asked me about?
If there is anything you think we should know about you, it is important that you tell us. You can tell us this information in Q.25, or you can use another piece of paper and attach it to your application.
What if I don’t have any of the documents you are asking for?
You must give us all the original documents asked for in the application form. If you don’t give us any documents, the processing of your application will not start until you do.

If you don’t have some of the original documents you need, you can contact your local embassy or ask a relative in Samoa for help. It will not be a good enough reason for you to send photocopies of documents or no documents because of the cost, inconvenience or time it takes for you to get originals.

What if I don’t meet the requirements for citizenship?
If you don’t meet all of the requirements for citizenship under the Citizenship (Western Samoa) Act 1982, it is unlikely that your application will be approved. However, you may be eligible for citizenship under the Citizenship Act 1977. Your case officer will tell you if you are eligible under this Act.

The Citizenship Act 1977
You may be eligible for a grant of New Zealand citizenship under this Act if:

- you are entitled to reside indefinitely in New Zealand; AND you have been present in New Zealand for:
  - at least 1,350 days with New Zealand residence during the five years immediately before you make your application; and
  - for at least 240 days with New Zealand residence in each of those five years; and
  - fully met any conditions imposed by Immigration New Zealand in regard to your New Zealand residence.

‘New Zealand residence’ means you have a residence permit, a residence visa or a permanent residence visa issued by Immigration New Zealand or you are an Australian citizen or permanent resident.

- you are of good character
- you understand the responsibilities and privileges of New Zealand citizenship
- you are able to understand and speak English
- you intend, if granted citizenship, to continue to reside in New Zealand

Exceptional circumstances and public interest
You might be able to get citizenship, even if you don’t meet some of the requirements, if you have exceptional circumstances of a humanitarian or other nature that mean it would be in the public interest for you to be granted citizenship. You will need to show that there will be an advantage or benefit for New Zealand from you becoming a citizen because of your exceptional circumstances. You may be considered to have exceptional circumstances if your situation is well outside the normal run of circumstances found in citizenship grant cases.

Waivers of other requirements
The Minister of Internal Affairs can sometimes reduce or waive a requirement if you do not meet it.

Presence in New Zealand
If you do not meet the presence requirement, you may still be able to get citizenship if you have been here for at least 450 days in the last 20 months. You will have to prove you have exceptional circumstances that justify a reduction in the presence requirement. You may be considered to have exceptional circumstances if your situation is well outside the normal run of circumstances found in citizenship grant cases.

English
You may still be able to get citizenship if you can prove you would find learning English too hard because of a variety of reasons, including not having enough education, having a disability or being too sick.

If you want more information about these options please see our website: www.govt.nz/citizenship, email us at citizenship@dia.govt.nz or call us on 0800 22 51 51.

Ceremonies – the Oath or Affirmation

The ceremony is an important part of becoming a citizen. During the ceremony you will be formally welcomed – usually by the mayor of your local area, or other official person. Adults and children who are 14 years or older who fill out the Samoan form must attend a public ceremony to get citizenship. Children under 14 are welcome to attend a ceremony, but this is not a requirement. Their certificates can be sent to you in the mail. During the ceremony you will read aloud a statement. The statement says you will be loyal to New Zealand.

You have a choice of 2 statements – either an oath or an affirmation.

Oath and Affirmation Statements

Oath of allegiance

"I (say your name) swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of New Zealand, her heirs and successors according to law, and that I will faithfully observe the laws of New Zealand and fulfill my duties as a New Zealand citizen. So help me God".

Affirmation of allegiance

"I (say your name) affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Queen of New Zealand, her heirs and successors according to law, and that I will faithfully observe the laws of New Zealand and fulfill my duties as a New Zealand citizen.".

The affirmation of allegiance is non-religious and does NOT include the words 'so help me God'.

Ceremonies – English

The statement that you choose to read at the citizenship ceremony is written in English and you will need to read it out loud at the ceremony. If you can speak English, tick ‘yes’. If you can’t speak English, tick ‘no’. If you are approved for a grant of citizenship, our Ceremonies Team will be in touch with you. Samoan citizens under the Citizenship (Western Samoa) Act 1982, do not have to speak English to become New Zealand citizens.

Ceremonies – family

Tick ‘yes’ if you are applying at the same time as the rest of your family and you want to attend the same ceremony.

Special assistance

Tick ‘yes’ if you require special assistance to attend an interview or public ceremony. This could include needing access for a wheelchair, or you have the inability to use stairs at a venue or help if you are hearing impaired. Please print what assistance you will require in the table provided. Tick ‘no’ if you do not require special assistance.

Disclosure

You should include anything you think might impact on your ability to meet the requirements to become a citizen, such as matters that are unclear about your identity or anything else we should know.

Complete this section if there is anything else we should know that might affect your ability to become a citizen. If you need more space, please use another piece of paper and attach it to your application.

Translator declaration

If someone is translating or helping you to fill out the form, tick ‘yes’ and get them to write their details and the date and sign in the box provided. This is a legal declaration, so the person translating needs to read it carefully before they sign it.

Applicant Declaration

You must sign this declaration if:

• you are 16 years or older; and
• you have filled in your application form yourself; or
• you can sign your own name but someone else has filled in the application form for you.

Sign and date the form in the boxes provided.

Parents’ Consent and Declaration

Consent

Both parents must give consent for their child to get New Zealand citizenship as some countries don’t allow dual citizenship. This may affect the child's current citizenship and future entitlements.

• Adoptive parents

If the child is adopted, the adoptive parents must be the parents to give consent for their child to get New Zealand citizenship. If the child was adopted in Samoa the Department requires the Order of Adoption, the pre-adoptive birth certificate, and the post-adoptive birth certificate.

• Sole Legal Guardianship

If only one parent is giving consent, this parent must have sole legal guardianship—this means that only one parent has a legal right of control over the child’s upbringing. The Citizenship Office will require a court order that specifically refers to sole legal guardianship.

A custody order on its own does not give sole legal guardianship over a child. If you are unsure, please call us on 0800 22 51 51 and someone will help you.

Declaration

The parent who completed the form needs to sign their name under the Parent Declaration as Parent 1. This section also allows the parent signing the declaration to give consent for their child to get New Zealand citizenship.

Your privacy
