

GNT002 - CBG ADULT

Use this form if you are aged 16 years or over and want to apply for New Zealand citizenship by grant.

Check you meet the requirements and learn about how to apply at govt.nz/citizenship.

The easiest way to apply is online.

Before you apply

To be eligible for a grant of citizenship, you must meet the following criteria:

- You are entitled to reside indefinitely in New Zealand; AND you have been present in New Zealand:
  - for at least 1,350 days with New Zealand residence during the 5 years immediately before you make your application; and
  - for at least 240 days with New Zealand residence in each of those 5 years; and
  - fully met any and all residence conditions imposed by Immigration New Zealand (INZ).
- You are of good character.
- You understand the responsibilities and privileges of New Zealand citizenship.
- You are able to hold a basic conversation in English.
- You intend to continue living in New Zealand, if granted citizenship.

'New Zealand residence' means you have a current residence permit, permanent residence visa or residence visa issued by INZ, you are an Australian citizen or permanent resident, or you are a New Zealand citizen by descent.

What you need to complete this application

- Your original birth certificate or your country's equivalent document.
- Your current passport(s) or most recent passport if it has expired.
- 2 identical colour photos of yourself that are less than 6 months old. We recommend you have your photos taken by a business that offers a passport photo service. These businesses can ensure your photos meet our requirements. Do not staple, glue or paper-clip photos to this application as this damages the photos.
- A person who can act as a witness for you. They must complete Section 10: Witness section.
- Evidence that you can speak English in everyday situations, if it is not your first language.
- The application fee of $560.00 per adult aged 16 years or over.

We do not accept photocopies.

If you are living as a different gender than what appears on your birth record, passport or travel document, you must provide a statutory declaration with this application that states:

- the gender you want on your citizenship certificate (male, female or non-binary)
- how long you have been living with that gender identity.

Make sure the information you provide is true and correct. All questions must be answered. If you need more space to answer a question, use another piece of paper. If it is later found that you have provided false or misleading information, you may be denied citizenship or lose citizenship once it is granted, or face criminal charges, or both.

Withdrawals and refunds

If you do not meet the requirements for citizenship, you can withdraw the application and get a partial refund of your application fee ($375.20). Part of the fee is kept to cover the costs of the initial processing of your application.

Privacy statement

Collection, authorisation, and use of information in support of this application

In order to process your citizenship application, we will need to collect some personal information from you. The decision to give us your information is your choice. If you do not give us all the information we need, we may decline your application.

We need your information to:

- verify your identity, and
- assist the Minister of Internal Affairs to decide whether you qualify for a grant of New Zealand citizenship.

We collect and hold information from this form at the Department of Internal Affairs, PO Box 10680, Wellington. Under the Privacy Act 2020 you can request access to and correction of the personal information we hold about you.

The information collected in your application may be used in statistical analysis and reporting for service improvement and business management purposes. Personal information will only be used where necessary for those purposes.

Data is stored, accessed and retained in accordance with our Privacy Policy, Information Management Policy, and the DIA Code of Conduct which incorporates our ICT and security policies, and in compliance with the Privacy Act

2020 and the Public Records Act 2005.

Information sharing

The Department of Internal Affairs (DIA) relies on the Identity Services Approved Information Sharing Agreement (IS AISA) to access information relating to your birth, death, marriage, name change, civil union and passport when verifying your identity.

DIA relies on the Customer Nominated Services Approved Information Sharing Agreement (CNS AISA) to share information with Immigration New Zealand (INZ) to verify your identity and confirm eligibility requirements are met for a grant of New Zealand citizenship.

DIA may share your citizenship information once you have been granted citizenship with other government agencies. Full details of the DIA's information-sharing practices are available on our website: dia.govt.nz/Legal-Privacy-Index.

Your photo will be used to help confirm your identity. This includes matching it with photos held in immigration records from the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment, and searching the Department's passport database. These checks help protect your identity and detect fraud.

Fees statement

All fees are in New Zealand dollars. All fees are correct as at the form version date.

Disclaimer

The questions above are based on the legal requirements for citizenship by grant. The result is only a general indicator to give you an idea of your eligibility. The questions do not form part of the formal application or assessment process.

A formal assessment of your ability to meet each relevant requirement will be carried out by the Department of Internal Affairs if you apply for citizenship. The results of the questions above are not legal advice. For more information, read the rest of the guide notes on page 1 to page 4.

Checklist

Before you bring or send us your application, make sure you have everything you need.

You must provide original documents – not copies.

All original documents will be returned to you.

If you do not provide all the original documents that you need to, your application will be delayed.

If you are unable to give us these documents, you will need to explain why in a letter with your application.

What you need to send:

- your full birth certificate, or equivalent
- all your current passports, travel documents or equivalent (or most recent if it has expired)
- 2 passport-style photos that your witness has signed, dated and written your name on the back on one of the photos
- filled out payment details in question 49 on page 25 (application fee is $560.00 per adult).

You might also need to send these documents:

- if you have changed your name, all your marriage, civil union, divorce, name change, or adoption documents that prove your names
- if English is not your first language, proof of your ability to speak English in everyday situations
- if you have committed any offence, a letter of explanation of any offence or legal action
- overseas police clearance if you lived overseas while you had an NZ residence visa for more than 4 months in the last 3 years, or more than 12 months in the last 12 years
- if you have ever had to return money to any New Zealand government agency, proof of your payment plan, or a letter from the agency saying you have repaid the debt in full
- if you are being, or have been, investigated, reviewed, or had any other legal action taken against you by government agencies in New Zealand or any other country, provide a letter of explanation
- anything else we should know that might affect your application.

If your documents are not in English, you may also need:

- authorised translations of your documents (if your documents are not in English and you already have an authorised translation, provide the translation with the original document).

If you do not have an authorised translation, provide your original documents and we will arrange for them to be translated. There is no charge for this unless you require a copy of the translation for your own purposes. If you require a copy of the translation, download a T100 Request for translation form from govt.nz/request for translation and include this with your application.

If you have already registered as a New Zealand citizen by descent and want to change your status to citizenship by grant you need to bring in or send:

- your original New Zealand citizenship by descent certificate.

- a signed letter from a past or current employer (who speaks English fluently)
- an IELTS certificate
- other school reports or exam results.

Section 6: Character requirements

Criminal history is important for assessing an applicant's character. You need to show you are of good character to be granted New Zealand citizenship. All questions in this section must be answered.

The Citizenship Office will complete background checks for all citizenship by grant applicants aged 14 and over, in order to determine that they meet the good character requirement. This includes checking your information with:

- New Zealand Police
- agencies in New Zealand, and
- agencies outside New Zealand.

Failing to provide all relevant information in this section may mean you are declined citizenship.

Do not include parking tickets or speed camera fines. If you have had more than 100 demerits on your driver licence, this may affect your citizenship application.

20. Have you ever been convicted or found guilty of any offence against the law of New Zealand or any other country?

Answer 'yes' if you have ever been convicted or found guilty of a crime, unless you qualify under the Clean Slate scheme.
