govt.nz/bdmtimeframes.

If you have requested a certificate showing your new sex marker, allow extra time for postage.

If your application is not correct and complete, your application may be delayed

Requirements

You will need to:

1. Provide a certified true copy of your current photo identification.
2. Make a statutory declaration on page 7-8 of this form.

Refer to pages 2-3 for further information about these requirements.

Include an official English translation of any document that is not in the English language.

1. Your current photo identification

You must provide a certified true copy of one of the following. It must include your photo.

- New Zealand or overseas passport (photo page only)
- New Zealand or international driver licence (copy of front and back)
- New Zealand or overseas firearms or dealer's licence
- New Zealand or overseas defence force or police service photo identity card
- Overseas identity card
- 18+ card or Kiwi Access Card (issued by Hospitality New Zealand) or overseas proof of age card

A certified true copy is a photocopy that has been stamped or endorsed by an authorised person. For example, a solicitor/lawyer, notary public, registrar of the court or Justice of the Peace. This confirms that the copy is a true copy of the original document.

If you do not have photo identification, you will need to fill out an Identity referee declaration form (BDM76). You can find this form at:

govt.nz/birth-certificate-sex.

You must present your current photo identification or completed BDM76 Identity Referee Declaration form (with attached photo) to the person authorised to take a statutory declaration when you sign the declaration in front of them. They can certify your document at the same time.
