

Application for New Zealand Citizenship by Descent & Passport

Adult

(16 years of age or older)

Who can apply?

Any person born outside New Zealand on or after 1 January 1978, and whose mother or father was a New Zealand citizen (otherwise than by descent) at the time of their birth or adoption can apply for registration of New Zealand citizenship by descent. Your mother or father will have either been born in New Zealand or will have received a grant of New Zealand citizenship before you were born. If you meet these requirements but were born before 1 January 1978, please contact the Citizenship Office. Our contact details are at the bottom of this page.

If you are applying for your child who is under 15 years or under, please use the Child form.

Read all instructions carefully

Fill in this form yourself. If you cannot fill in this form yourself because you have a disability or a language difficulty, someone else can fill in the form for you. This person must complete the statutory declaration.

Need a passport too?

You can use this form just to register your citizenship by descent, or to register your citizenship by descent and apply for a New Zealand passport. There is no need to complete a separate passport form.

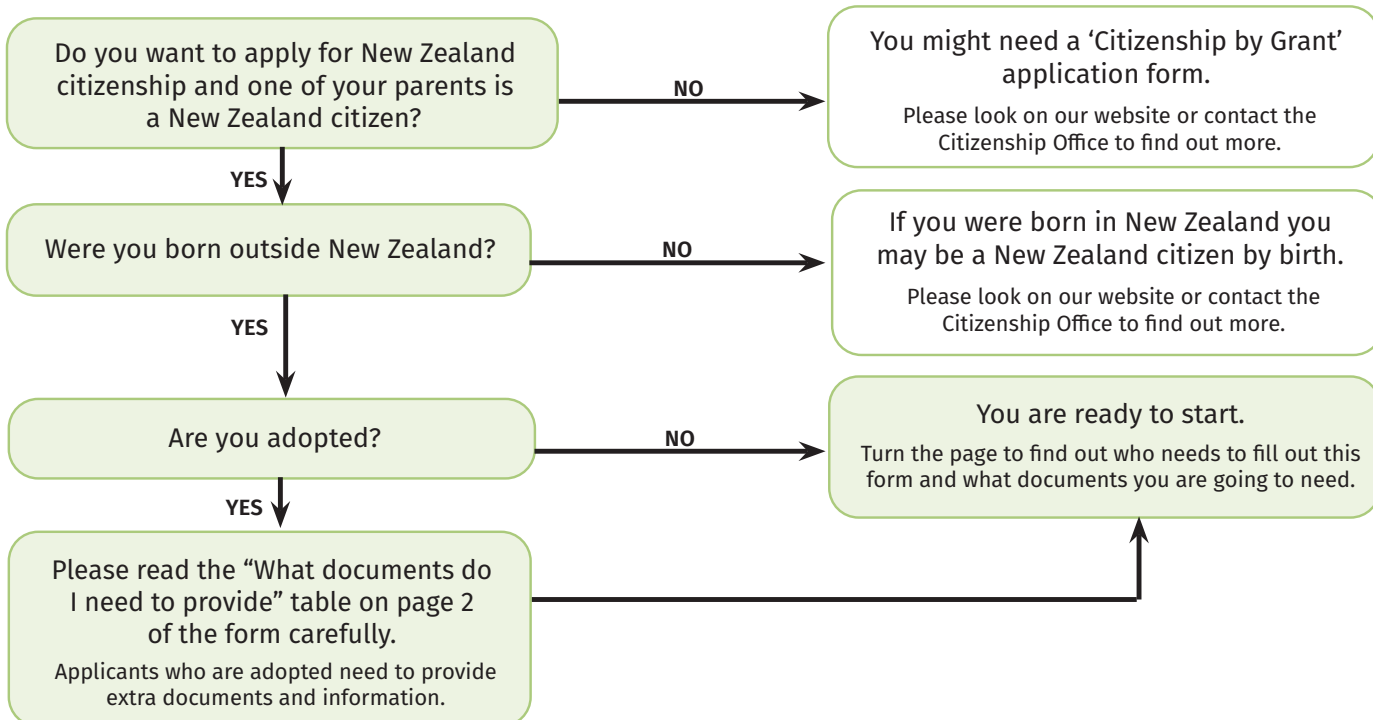

How long will it take?

For current processing timeframes, visit govt.nz/registercitizenship.

Where should I start?

Answer the questions in the boxes below to see what you should do.

The questions in the boxes below are based on the legal requirements for a citizenship by descent application. The results from the questions are only a general indicator to give you some idea of your eligibility for citizenship by descent. These questions do not form part of the formal assessment process. A formal assessment will be carried out by the Department of Internal Affairs, should you choose to apply for citizenship. For more detailed information, please read the rest of the application form or visit our website citizenship.govt.nz
