

Application for New Zealand Citizenship by Descent & Passport

Child

(15 years or under)

Who can apply?

Any person born outside New Zealand on or after 1 January 1978, and whose mother or father was a New Zealand citizen (otherwise than by descent) at the time of their birth or adoption can apply for registration of New Zealand citizenship by descent. Your child's mother or father will have either been born in New Zealand or will have received a grant of New Zealand citizenship before they were born. If you are aged 16 years or older, and want to apply for citizenship, please use the Adult form.

To find out more please contact the Citizenship Office. Our contact details are at the bottom of this page.

Need a passport too?

Use this form just to register your child's citizenship by descent, or to register your child's citizenship by descent and apply for a New Zealand passport for them. There is no need to complete a separate passport form.

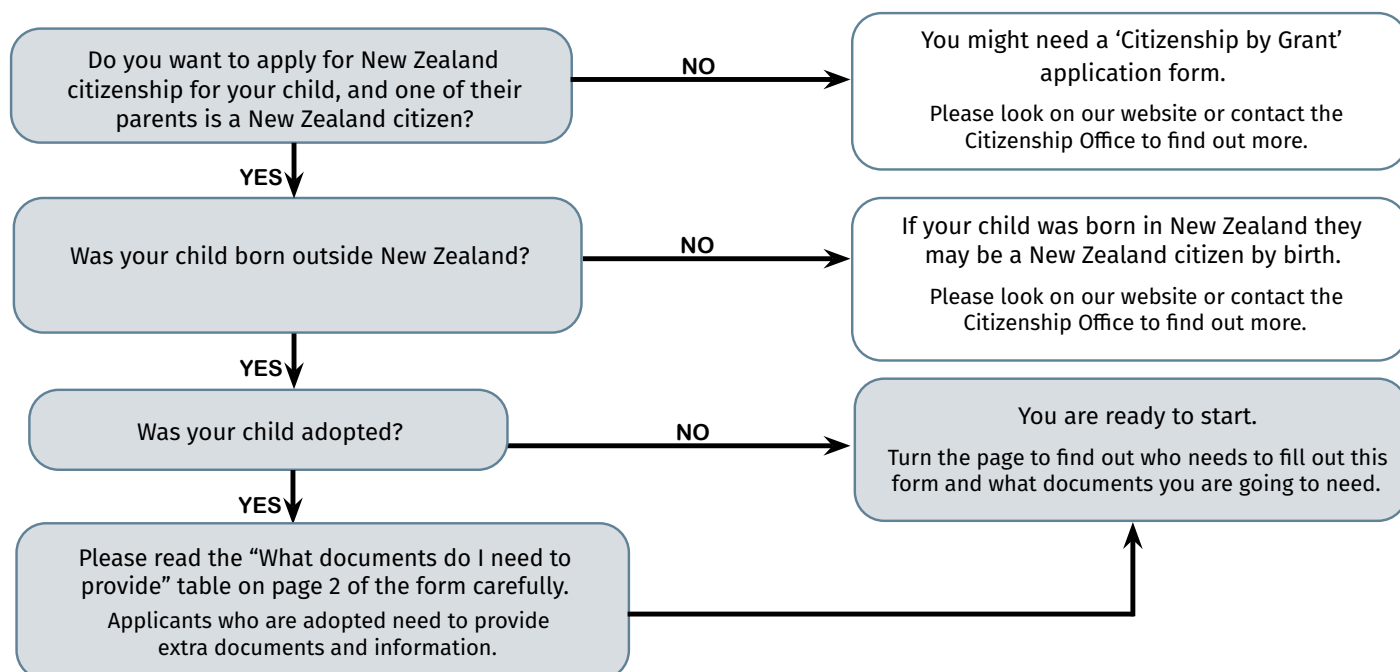

How long will it take?

For current processing timeframes, visit govt.nz/registercitizenship.

Where should I start?

Answer the questions in the boxes below to see what you should do.

The questions in these boxes are based on the legal requirements for a citizenship by descent application. The results from the questions are only a general indicator to give you some idea of your child's eligibility for citizenship by descent. These questions do not form part of the formal assessment process. A formal assessment will be carried out by the Department of Internal Affairs, should you choose to apply for citizenship for your child. For more detailed information, please read the rest of the application form or see our website citizenship.govt.nz.

1 Who fills in this form?

You will need a 'New Zealand Parent', and a witness to help you complete this application form.

If your child has two parents who are both New Zealand citizens (other than by descent), you can choose either parent to be the 'New Zealand Parent', when completing this form. If the birth mother or claim parent is unable to sign the application, please contact us.

2 What documents do I need to provide?

Check the tables below to see which documents the 'Child' and the 'New Zealand Parent' need to provide. Remember, we need original documents. We will return all your original documents to you. Any documents not in English will be translated as part of your application. If you would like a copy of the translation, download a 'Request for Translation' from our website (govt.nz) and include this with your application.

Child

Birth certificate (Full official state-issued)	This document needs to be the original birth certificate. Hospital certificates are not accepted. It must have the child's full name, place and date of birth, gender and both parents' names. If the child's birth certificate does not have all this information on it, please contact the Citizenship Office. Photocopies can not be accepted.
2 photos	You must provide 2 identical, passport size photos of the child. These photos must meet certain requirements. Please see the photo section for more information.
Change of name documents (if your child has changed their name)	If your child's name has changed for any reason (for example: adoption, statutory declaration) you need to provide an official state-issued change of name document (for example: the adoption order or statutory declaration). We cannot accept 'also known as' names. Note: If this name change happened in New Zealand, you do not need to send the documents. The Citizenship Office can access them electronically.
Adoption documents (if your child has been adopted)	You must provide all original adoption documents if your child has been adopted outside New Zealand. Adoptions from other countries have different requirements. For more information, please see our website or phone the Citizenship Office.

New Zealand Parent

Your most recent New Zealand passport number	Please enter your most recent New Zealand passport number in question 22 of this form. If you do not have a New Zealand passport, you need to provide a current photo identification document (for example a driver licence). This can be certified by a Justice of Peace, Notary, Sworn Police Officer, Court Registrar, NZ Embassy/NZ Consulate staff member or Department of Internal Affairs (DIA) staff authorised to do so.
Change of name documents (if you have changed your name)	If your name has changed for any reason (for example: marriage, adoption, statutory declaration) you need to provide an official state-issued change of name document (for example: your marriage/civil union certificate or adoption order). Note: If this name change happened in New Zealand, you do not need to send the documents. The Citizenship Office can access the records electronically.

Application for Child Passport

No other documents required	If you also want to apply for a New Zealand passport for your child, you just need to complete question 40 of this form and add the additional passport fee.
------------------------------------	---

Your child's passport-size photos need to be:

- Recent colour photos, less than 6 months old.
- Be a full front, close up view of the head and shoulders with the head covering 70% to 80% of the photograph.
- Be taken with a neutral expression (not smiling or frowning) with their mouth closed.
- Show the child looking straight at the camera, and their head not tilted.
- Show child's eyes open and clearly visible, and no hair in their eyes.
- Without sunglasses. Tinted prescription glasses may be worn as long as eyes are still visible.
- A true image and not altered in any way.
- Clear, sharp and in focus with minimum reflective light on face. No redeye.
- With a plain light coloured background (not white).
- Be of good quality colour and on high quality photographic paper, with no ink marks on the image (no inkjet printers).
- Passport-sized (45mm x 35mm).
- Glasses frames must not obscure the eyes.
- Do not trim the photos.

4 The questions numbered 4 to 13 are about the child.

38 Do you have the child's 2 photos?

The witness needs to write 3 things on the back of one of the photos:

- the full name of the child
- sign the back of photo
- today's date

Please check carefully. Have you written the 3 things on the back of one of the photos correctly?

Do not: staple, glue or paperclip photos to the application as this may cause damage.

Ensure your photo has been correctly witnessed to avoid delays in processing.

Witness to:

- write full name of the child
- sign back of photo
- write today's date

I declare that
